Highlights in your life:

25 years have passed? Where did all those years go? All of a sudden, here we are in the year 2000, in the dawn of a brand new millennium. What have I been doing for the past 25 years since I graduated from Gallaudet? To make it short, I have been teaching in Alberta for the last 24 years. I am a teacher at the Alberta School for the Deaf. Not only that, but I've spent almost 3/4 of the last 25 years developing an unique ASL dictionary, The Canadian Dictionary of ASL, which we hope will be published in the year 2001. My life in Canada has been great and I love every minute of it.
